UPCOMING IN 2021

Thurs 29 July AICC(WA) Annual HEALTHCARE Event 2021 “So you think you know what’s good for you?” by Physician, Journalist, Author and ABC Radio National broadcaster Dr Norman Swan. So you think you know what’s good for you? Let’s get past COVID - what you can stop worrying about with your health and how to emulate the second longest lived people in the world - and they’re Australian!” Dr Swan will explore common myths about health: do we really need 7-8 hours sleep? What the raw food movement is missing out on - and it really matters, what is the secret sauce in the Mediterranean diet? And is there a needless moral panic about screens? That and a lot more. Dr Swan’s address is a must for all. Suitable for a wide range of audiences, young and old, all work sectors, health professionals and families-don’t miss this rare entertaining and informative presentation delivered in Norman’s trademark clarity and wit. Dr Swan hosts Radio National (RN)’s Health Report and since the COVID-19 pandemic, co-hosted Coronacast, a daily podcast on the coronavirus. He is also a reporter and commentator on the ABC’s 7.30, Midday, News Breakfast and Four Corners and a guest host on RN Breakfast. Dr Swan is a past winner of the Gold Walkley. He created Invisible Enemies, on pandemics and civilisation for Channel 4 UK and broadcast in 27 countries. Norman was awarded the medal of the Australian Academy of Science and has an honorary MD from the University of Sydney. He is also the recipient of the Australian Skeptics Journalism Award 2020. Norman trained in Medicine and Paediatrics in Aberdeen, London and Sydney before joining the ABC. OPEN FOR SPONSORSHIP

17-19 August ALL NEW * AICC(WA) & PKF PRODUCTIVITY Solutions Series “Managing Constraints to Optimise Outcomes” An Online 3 part Workshop presented by Lewis Trigger. Most managers hate constraints and bottlenecks. Even more so after 2020!! After all, constraints and bottlenecks cause delays, don’t they? This event presents a complete turnaround, showing managers to value their constraints by leveraging them, looking after them, protecting them from nasty surprises, and enabling managers to deliver consistently better results from the resources you already have. Constraints and bottlenecks are what ultimately controls the output of your business.

Through Lewis’s powerful and practical online workshop, you will internalise the management techniques of managing your constraints to optimise outcomes. Constraint Innovation is based on the internationally acclaimed Theory of Constraints (ToC) and combines other leading management doctrines such as Lean, Concurrent Engineering, and System’s thinking. In this 3-part online Constraint Innovation workshop, International CI expert Lewis Trigger shares common sense, practical solutions drawn from the advanced management doctrine ToC (Theory of Constraints) to address the challenge of “Unlocking Value” via leveraging your Constraints, be it Resource Constraints, a Policy Constraint, as well as a Market Constraint. This 3 part workshop focuses on managing critical resources in an uncertain dynamic environment. WHEN: 17, 18 & 19 August 2021 - 3 online sessions AEST 1:30 - 4:00pm.

The All New AICC(WA) & PKF PRODUCTIVITY Solutions Series Hiring for Brilliance. In the next 5 - 10 years, it is fair to say that your company's ability to achieve its intended strategic goals will, in large part, come down to how well you can attract and retain the best people, especially in this growing WA economy. Yet, it is often the part of our job that we have never been trained by the experts in. As AICCWA's new strategic partner in the areas of executive and management search, Briscoe Consulting's MD, Brian Briscoe promises to gift some phenomenal takeaways for you to become a more expert recruiter of your staff. This brilliant 90 minute "Hiring Brilliance Workshop", will be aimed at our AICC(WA) executive, corporate and senior management members. More details to be released. OPEN FOR SPONSORSHIP

AICC(WA)'s Annual GEOPolitical Event - "The New Total War of the 21st Century" featuring Greg Copley AM, President & Chief Analytical Officer, The International Strategic Studies Association, USA, direct from Washington DC and with event moderator Malcolm McCusker AC CVO QC. Gregory Copley's annual AICC geopolitical talk follows his 2019 address, in which he said that the new age of China was coming to an end. That talk was entitled "Do You Really Think China Will Save Australia?", and it advised Australians to prepare for "life after China", noting that the economy of the PRC was in a profound downswing. Well, that "life after China" has begun, and not just because the COVID-19 crisis struck. We are now embroiled in an entirely new global confrontation between the People's Republic of China and the West, regardless of the wishes of many in Australian business who would have liked the China boom to have kept fueling Australia's economy. Greg's talks have always delivered new perspectives, and those who have listened to him at AICC(WA) talks in Perth over the past two decades know that he usually gets it right, as uncomfortable as that can be for some of us. More details to be released. OPEN FOR SPONSORSHIP

Other possible events/speakers being planned for 2021-2022, include;
