TEC and AICC(WA) Transformation Through Innovation Delegation to Israel 2022

Expressions of interest (EOI) are invited to participate on an unforgettable delegation to Israel, one of the most inspirational countries and technology ecosystems in the world. Experience firsthand how the tiny country of Israel has used its intellectual capital to become one of the global leaders in technology, innovation and R&D. Meet the people creating the over-the-horizon technologies that have the potential to disrupt or transform your view of the world and your organisations' role in it. The Israeli venture capital industry is >10x larger than Australia's (with 1/3rd of the population). With over 6000 high tech countries in a country 1/3rd the size of Tasmania, Israel is home to over 100 R&D centres of multinational companies including Microsoft, Intel, Apple, Alphabet, Facebook, IBM, Cisco, GM and GE. Israel is a global leader in many technology sectors including; cybersecurity, AI, CleanTech, AgTech, water technologies, Medical Technologies, FinTech, autonomous vehicles and robotics as well as construction and mining technologies and those that improve the quality of life for people with disabilities. EOI are invited with all being interviewed to identify individual requirements and suitability. Places are limited and filling quickly so please contact Delegation Director Mark Majzner 0414 847 827 mark@31ns.com.au or AICC(WA)'s John Cluer perth@aicc.org.au to arrange a conversation about your participation.

Sunday 12 March tbc The Hollow Cause AICC(WA)'s Music Event of the Year. The AICC(WA) is proud to have amongst its Membership and contributors, the locally based Keshet Kesh. A descendent of European Jews who survived the Holocaust, and now a resident of Perth, Keshet grew up in Israel. The Hollow Cause is a human story, designed to help non-Jews relate to victims of the holocaust, as well as rousing curiosity and fostering action in younger generations. Plus it is designed to stimulate debates of moral grey-zones one ventures into when trying to survive, and to inspire by suggesting there is beauty in life, even after experiencing such horrors. Click on this link to watch a preview of The Hollow Cause. While plans are being made to produce a season of The Hollow Cause in mid 2023, the AICC(WA) is proud to announce that Keshet will host a special production for AICC(WA) members and contacts. For the first time the AICC(WA) now has the opportunity to share an insight into Israeli inspired Performing Arts with our local Perth corporate community. This unique production brings together the benefits of local economic support of artists and Israeli culture in a unique and inspiring experience. All welcome, corporates, families and community (date tentatively the evening of 12 March 2023 6-9pm venue tbc). Sponsors welcome, contact perth@aicc.org.au

In-Person Networking AICC(WA)'s PKF Productivity Solutions Seminar, on 4 key business topics:
1. Meeting the Productivity Challenge as part of Dr Grant Donovan, Director, Our Collective Genius. Grant will explore how most productive and consistently high performing organisations have a 'Choose Well, Treat Well and Engage Well' culture. Gallup researched 42.9 million employees across 5,000 organisations, in 212 countries, and found engaged workers who are treated well deliver 23% higher profitability. The evidence clearly shows workplaces are more productive that spend time matching every person with the job that fits them best, before wrapping them in a culture that values them as people and values their ideas. This session will highlight three globally proven, evidence-based programs & measurement platforms especially accessible through the AICC(WA), to help any organisation develop a high performing culture.

2. Getting the Appvantage in Business as part of the AICC(WA)'s PKF Productivity Solutions Series featuring Dinali David, multi award winning Managing Director of Lemmon App. She will provide an overview of the multiple productivity gains possible by using Apps in your business.

3. Productivity and the ESG equation. As Australian business leaders face greater regulatory risk and potential scrutiny, this session introduces new AICC(WA) member ESG Capital discussing how to focus on prioritising resources, to ensure robust compliance programs are in place, to mitigate risks & capitalise on opportunities, generating sustainable long-term financial returns.

4. HackAttack with AICC(WA)'s inhouse resident cyber resilience expert Dr Craig Valli on the very latest threats and essentials required for businesses to sustain today and into the future.

Thurs 25 Nov AICC(WA)'s Annual GEOPolitical Event - "The New Total War of the 21st Century" featured Mr Greg Copley AM, President & Chief Analytical Officer, The International Strategic Studies Association, USA, direct from Washington DC. Greg's annual AICC geopolitical talk followed his 2019 address, in which he said that the new age of China was coming to an end. That talk was entitled "Do You Really Think China Will Save Australia?", and it advised Australians to prepare for "life after China", noting that the economy of the PRC was in a profound downswing. Well, that "life after China" has begun, and not just because the COVID-19 crisis struck. We are now embroiled in an entirely new global confrontation between the People's Republic of China and the West, regardless of the wishes of many in Australian business who would have liked the China boom to have kept fueling Australia's economy. Greg's talks have always delivered new perspectives, and those who have listened to him at AICC(WA) talks in Perth over the past two decades know that he usually gets it right, as uncomfortable as that can be for some of us. Greg delivered this 'hybrid event' address online live via Zoom from Washington USA to an in-person audience of over 100 in Perth at legal firm Mills Oakley, on Thursday 25 November 2021, 5.45-8.45pm.
